We wrote to WIPO in August to inform them of the change in ownership and that we had taken over the representation of this application. As yet, however, we have not received notification from WIPO that the change of applicant details has been communicated to the national offices. We would be grateful if you would ensure that the correct details are recorded for entry into the European phase.

We request examination is carried out on the basis of the amended claims enclosed herewith.

Continued/....

In this application, unless expressly stated otherwise, no amendment to the description or claims is intended as abandonment of any of the subject matter of the application (or its originating PCT application) as filed. We maintain the right to file divisional applications in respect of any such subject matter.

As a precaution, we request oral proceedings in the event that the Examining Division intends to refuse the application or any of our requests in connection with it

Yours faithfully
